04.04.2024

Mentioned today by Shri Dharmendra Kumar, Counsel for Petitioner.

1. The case was mentioned.
2. The Petitioner's case in short is that the impugned order appointing the Inspection Officer has not really taken into account the pleadings of the petitioner and given speaking findings qua the same. The petitioner is agreeable for the inspection to be carried out from 01.04.2019 instead of a much shorter period that is being covered under the said complaint dated 09.06.2023. The petitioner further submitted that the present Managing Committee is not shying away from the entire truth to be looked into and is only aggrieved by a partial address of the issues.
3. To this extent, the Petitioner's pleadings deserve to be looked into.
4. Issue notice to the Respondents for filing their response, on filing of PF & RC.
5. On the next date of hearing, it shall be considered whether the inspection ordered vide the impugned order dated 28.02.2024 should be stayed or not, till the final adjudication of the case.
6. As requested, copy of this order be given dasti to the Ld. Counsel for Petitioner.
7. Adj. to 16.05.2024.
