11.07.2024

Case was mentioned today by Shri Rajiv Vig, Counsel for Petitioner.

1. Since the Petitioner is aggrieved by orders of the Respondent, RCS dated 19.06.2024 whereby the RCS has appointed a Special Auditor with reference to the CBI Report dated 28.06.2022. The Petitioner also submitted that the RCS had specifically referred to the same CBI report issuing a Show Cause Notice on 04.09.2023 calling for the response of the Petitioner within 15 days. The Petitioner's case is that the Petitioner Bank submitted the response on 19.09.2023. However, the said Show Cause Notice and the response of the Petitioner is not alluded to in the impugned orders appointing the Special Auditor.
2. The Petitioner's case is that on the face of impugned orders, the RCS has not apparently dealt with the defence taken and hence the principles of natural justice are hit, since the Petitioner is not assured as to on what account the special audit has been ordered. Only to this extent as to why the reply of the Petitioner Bank has not been covered in the orders appointing the Special Auditor consequent to the issuance of the said Show Cause Notice, it is imperative that the response of the RCS is seen.
3. Issue notice. Let the Respondent file the reply in terms of the above and till the next date of hearing, no adverse action be taken qua the Petitioner, Bank in terms of the impugned orders.
4. As requested by the Ld.Counsel for Petitioner, copy of this order be given dasti.
5. Adj. to 09.08.2024.
