Case No. 286 of 2024

26.09.2024

Case was mentioned today by Shri Rajesh Srivastava, Counsel for Petitioner.

1. The mention was made by the Petitioner.
2. The Petitioner is aggrieved by the impugned order dated 14.08.2024 whereby the Respondent, RCS has passed some orders qua the Petitioner in terms of preventing the Petitioner from taking some action or participating in some manner in the said Cooperative Bank. The Petitioner is specifically aggrieved that vide orders dated 26.07.2024, this court had upheld the orders of the Ld. RCS dated 05.09.2023 and directed that as part of the inquiry under Section 66(1) of the Delhi Cooperative Societies Act, 2003, the Petitioner herein shall be at liberty to participate in the proceedings and should be heard by the RCS while passing a speaking order.
3. The background of the matter is that there was a CBI investigation into the activities of the said bank and as as part of the said investigation and CBI report, certain recommendations were made to the Respondent, RCS and the Respondent, RCS has been taking follow through action on the recommendations and an inquiry under Section 66(1) is currently under way wherein the Petitioner is participating.
4. As per the Ld.Counsel for the Petitioner, the said CBI Report alluded to in the impugned orders dated 14.08.2024 and the said CBI report as mentioned in this court's order dated 26.07.2024 are the same. This statement is taken at face value and accepted and only subject to this, the matter is further being dealt with.

5. The Petitioner's specific grievance is that while passing the impugned order dated 14.08.2024, the Petitioner has not been provided for an opportunity of being heard and adverse opinion has been concluded by the Ld. RCS while RCS is currently seized of hearing and examining the submissions of the Petitioner qua the same CBI investigation report.
6. That being so, it appears that the Ld. RCS has proceeded against the Petitioner without hearing him in this matter while being seized of the Petitioner's submissions in another matter but originating from the same CBI investigation report.
7. On the face of it, it appears to be contradictory and against the principle of natural justice that no one should be proceeded against without giving him an opportunity of being heard. To this extent, there is a need to intervene in the present matter and the following orders passed.
8. Issue notice to the Respondents and let the RCS place before this court under what circumstances and as to how the Petitioner has not been heard while passing of the impugned order dated 14.08.2024 and till the same is considered on the next date of hearing by this court, no coercive action shall be taken pursuant to the impugned orders dated 14.08.2024 specifically qua the rights and obligations of the Petitioner herein.
9. As requested by the Ld.Counsel for Petitioner, the copy of this order be given dasti.
10. List to 08.11.2024.
