22.11.2024

Mentioned today by Shri Sanjeev Chopra, Counsel for Petitioner.

1. The Petitioner, Nursing Home through Ld.Counsel mentioned the case.
2. The Petitioner is aggrieved by the impugned order dated 22.10.2024 which as per the Ld.Counsel was received by the Petitioner on 06.11.2024.
3. The impugned order has effectively rejected the renewal of the registration of the Petitioner's Nursing Home and has directed that the said Nursing Home will cease to operate after 30 days of the passing of these orders i.e. from 22.11.2024.
4. The Petitioner is aggrieved that contrary to the impugned orders, the Petitioner had filed all the requisite documents and had also appeared for personal hearing through the Managing Director of the Petitioner, Nursing Home.
5. The impugned orders have not reflected the submission of the documents as well as the appearance of the Managing Director for personal hearing.
6. The Petitioner also states that the Petitioner has duly filed representation that the Nursing Home is operational only from the ground and first floor which is in accordance with the pending proceedings in the Hon'ble High Court of Delhi in WPC no.6952/2022 which is dealing with issue of NOC from the Fire Department.
7. The Petitioner's case is that the impugned order suffers from being non explanatory of the factual matrix and the facts as available on the ground and therefore pressed that the impugned orders need to be revisited in terms of the petition filed.

8. From the record file, it is seen that the Petitioner has submitted copies of the documents filed before the Health authorities with acknowledgement thereon within the due date as specified in the Show Cause Notice.
9. To this extent, the Petitioner's case needs to be looked into further and the interests of justice will be served if the Petitioner is protected from the implementation of these orders till the next date of hearing. It was also clarified by the Petitioner that after Covid Pandemic, the said premises had been functioning all along while the renewal of the registration was under process and under consideration at various stages.
10. Therefore, no harm will occur in case the said premises is allowed to function till the next date of hearing when the Respondents shall file their reply to the petition.
11. Issue notices to the Respondents.
12. As requested by the Ld.Counsel for Petitioner, a copy of this order be given dasti.
13. List on 10.01.2025.
