5. Termination of authorisation:- (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this clause the Deputy Commissioner may at any time terminate the authorisation by giving two months notice in writing to the person(s) to whom an authorisation has been issued under this order and then the authorisation shall cease to be effective upon expiry of the period of such notice.

(2) It shall also be open to the person holding an authorisation issued under this order to relinquish his authorisation by giving three month notice in writing to the Deputy Commissioner and then the authorisation shall cease to be effective upon receipt of intimation by him from the authorised officer of the termination of his authorisation.

Provided that the liability of the person holding the Authorisation shall not cease until the stocks of specified articles and records of consumer cards, etc. have been taken over from him.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Order, the Deputy Commissioner, may, if he is satisfied that it is necessary and expedient so to do cancel an authorisation suo-moto in the circumstances specified below:-

(a) If the number of fair price shops in a particular area or locality is more than the number of fair price shops required to ensure proper distribution of specified articles in that area or locality or

(b) If the person holding an authorisation is found to be functioning in unbusiness like manner or indulging in activities prejudicial to the maintenance of supplies and services essential to the community or

(c) If the person authorised to be a fair price shop holder is found to be running a chakki in which specified articles are consumed or processed or dealing in articles of the open market which are specified articles under this order in the same premises or elsewhere, or

(d) If the person holding an authorisation is found to have given false information knowing that the same was false in the application or any documents tendered for grant of authorisation under this order.

✓ 6. Appeal (1) Any person aggrieved by the order of the Deputy Commissioner made under sub-clause (1) or sub-clause (2) of clause 4 may prefer an appeal in writing before the Commissioner within a period of thirty days from the date of receipt of the order by such person;

See 6(2)

~~Provided that the Commissioner may entertain the appeal after the said period of thirty days, if he is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from filing the appeal in time;~~

Provided further that the person aggrieved by the order of the Deputy Commissioner made under sub-clause (2) of clause 4 shall deposit the forfeited amount of security before filing the appeal.

(2) Every appeal filed under sub-clause (1) shall be in the form of a memorandum signed by the appellant and shall be accompanied by an attested copy of the order appealed against. It shall be presented in person or sent by registered post to the Commissioner.

(3) The appeal shall be liable to be summarily rejected if the appellant fails to furnish an attested copy of the order appealed against or in case of an order under sub-clause (2)

(2) of clause 4 if he fails to deposit the amount equivalent to the forfeited amount of security before filing the appeals.

(4) If the commissioner admits the appeal, he shall fix a date for hearing of which notice shall be sent to the appellant as also to the Deputy Commissioner. Pending disposal of the appeal, the Commissioner may stay the operation of the order appealed from;

Provided that no stay order shall be granted in case of an order passed under sub-clause (2) of clause 4.

(5) The Commissioner, may after giving the parties an opportunity of being heard as aforesaid, confirm, vary or set aside the order appealed from or pass such other order as he may deem fit.

(6) The Commissioner may, upon application either on behalf of the Food and Supplies Department or the aggrieved person or of his own motion revise any order passed by the Deputy Commissioner or review his own order that of his predecessor.

Provided that the provisions relating to appeals contained in sub-clauses (1), (2), (3) and (4) shall mutatis mutandis apply to the applications for revision or review.

Provided further that no order which is likely to effect any person adversely shall be passed unless such a person has been given an opportunity of being heard.

(7) Any person aggrieved by the order of the commissioner passed by him suo-moto revising the order of the Deputy Commissioner under sub-clause (5) may prefer an appeal in writing before the Financial Commissioner, Delhi Administration, Delhi. The procedure laid down in regard to submission of appeal before the Commissioner under sub-clause (1) to (5) shall mutatis-mutandis apply to the appeals before the Financial Commissioner, Delhi Administration, under this sub-clause.

under vide order No. F. 4(7)/25-F&C (P&C) dt. 2.3.88
(8) Notwithstanding anything contained in this order, the Administrator may call for and examine suo-moto the record of any proceedings before the Financial Commissioner or the Commissioner or any Officer subordinate to him, for the purpose of satisfying himself as to the correctness, legality or propriety of any finding or order recorded or passed by the Financial Commissioner and Commissioner or any other officer subordinate to him, and to pass thereon such order as he thinks fit.

7. Cancellation of authorisation upon conviction :-

Notwithstanding anything contained in this clause where an authorised wholesaler or a fair price shop holder has been convicted by a court of law in respect of contravention of any of the provisions of this order or any other order made under section 3 of the Essential Commodities Act (10 of 1955) the Deputy Commissioner may be order, in writing cancel his authorisation forthwith.

Provided that where such conviction is set aside in appeal or revision the Deputy Commissioner may on application by the person whose authorisation has been cancelled re-issue the authorisation to such person.

PART-II DISTRIBUTION AND SUPPLY OF SPECIFIED ARTICLES.

8. Supply by wholesaler :- No authorised wholesaler shall supply or offer or attempt to supply or cause to be supplied any specified articles to any person other than a person who is a fair price shop holder or against a permit issued under clause 10 and except at such prices as may from time to time to be specified by the central govt. or by the Administrator in this behalf and except under and in accordance with the provisions of this order.

Provided that restrictions contained herein shall not apply to distribution of specified articles by or on behalf of the Food Corporation of India or any other body corporate owned by government.
